Columbus Magician to Entertain Troops During Asian Tour

November is "Military Family Appreciation Month" and Columbus Comedian and Magician, Michael Kent, will be spending the month touring Naval Bases in Asia to help celebrate the month-long event.

The tour, being promoted by Navy Entertainment, will bring Michael to nine American Navy Bases throughout Asia to entertain Navy Personnel and their families with his comedy magic show. It follows Michael's national television appearance on the season premiere of "Penn & Teller: Fool Us" seen by 3 million viewers on The CW Network and more than half-a-million on YouTube.

This will mark the 4th time Kent will go overseas to entertain the troops. Last year, Michael spent a month circling the globe entertaining American troops stationed in Europe, Asia and the Middle East. In 2012, he traveled throughout Asia to spend Christmas and New Year's with Navy Entertainment performing for U.S. Navy Personnel and their families and in 2010, Kent spent 3 weeks entertaining U.S. Army Soldiers in South Korea.

In 2015, he completed an 115-city US College tour that earned him the titles of "Entertainer of the Year" and "Magician of the Year." Kent says while those awards meant a lot to him, they don't compare to being able to share his magic with the military and their families.

"As a civilian, its hard for me to imagine what it must be like living away from home for long periods of time. By giving me the opportunity to entertain servicemen and women around the world, Navy Entertainment is allowing me to feel like I'm doing my part while spreading joy and happiness to those who truly need it."
